

NOVA VOCE MALE VOICE SCHOLARSHIP

Nova Voce, Nova Scotia's provincial men's choir, is pleased to announce a scholarship for young men! An award of $1000 will be made to a full-time third or fourth year male voice student enrolled in a music degree program in a Nova Scotia university who has demonstrated an exceptional level of performance and potential for a professional singing career. The recipient will appear as a guest soloist in at least one Nova Voce concert.

Applications for this award will come from the studios of voice teachers in Nova Scotia universities. Applications will consist of brief curriculum vitae, a letter of support from the voice teacher and a list of recent repertoire. The audition will consist of the performance of one piece from the classical repertoire and one from music theatre/jazz. An accompanist will be provided, but an applicant may wish to bring his own accompanist. If the singer is using the Nova Voce accompanist, copies of the music must accompany the application.

Deadline for applications is Monday, March 6. Auditions will take place in the MacAloney Room at the Dalhousie Arts Centre on the morning of Saturday, March 31st. Audition times will be assigned once all applications are received.

The audition panel will consist of the Artistic and Associate Artistic Directors of Nova Voce, together with a recognized professional singer chosen by them.
