

Wondering
what Nova Voce's Spring Gala has to offer?

Here are some of the details:

Ashburn Golf Club, well known for its ambiance and culinary excellence, will be providing a wonderful dinner for us, including a roast beef carving station, salmon,
choices of salads, vegetables, and desserts.

How should you dress?

Well, we won't turn you away at the door if you're in a tuxedo or ball gown, but really, we just want folks to be comfortable, so business casual is the way to go.

This year's master of ceremonies is the irrepressible Mr. Jamie Bradley, a native Halagonian. Jamie is a talented actor, playwright, writer, composer, and Librettist.

His favorite instrument is his trusty fountain pen. Jamie's charm and wit are as sharp as the point of his pen. Jamie will keep you entertained as he guides us through the evening.

When not performing Jamie is rolling in the dough, as a baker extraordinaire!
We're sure his scintillating repartee and humour will make for an unforgettable evening.

The choir will be opening the evening with a set of songs designed to put you in a relaxed mood.
Then there will be individual and group performances by members of the choir, showcasing a range of vocal talent as the guys strut their stuff. By then you may need a break to stretch your legs, so why not get your bids in on our silent auction items and spend some time talking with friends and the choir members (they will be the guys that DID wear tuxes)?

To end the evening the choir will bring a few more songs especially selected just for the evening.

The men of the choir and their supporters have chosen to sell 50/50 tickets this year (tickets are $2 each or 3/$5). As a matter of fact, the guys will be selling these tickets in the weeks leading up to the gala, and you don't have to be present to win.

If we sell all of our tickets, you could take home $1,500!

Have you ever wanted the chance to conduct a song for Nova Voce?
Drop in a ballot for a shot at directing the choir and let your inner Maestro free.
Ballots are $1.00 each.

If you're in the mood for a libation or two, Ashburn's cash bar will be open for your liquid refreshment at 5:30. And, what evening out would be complete without a chance to memorialize it in our photo booth? Choose from a variety of props, from top hats to feather boa's and have your photo taken. You'll be able to access and download your photos from your home computer shortly after the gala.

We're looking forward to seeing you.
